Nnn Numb. 1588.

The Daily Courant.

Monday, March 17. 1707.

From the Paris Gazette, dated March 19.

Madrid, March 1.

'TIS advis'd from Cadix, that 2 Veſſels were arriv'd there from Majorca, which were immediately ſiez'd as Enemies: But the Maſters declar'd, that themſelves and all thoſe they had on board were the King's faithful Subjects, who had abandon'd their Country and Eſtates rather than ſubmit to his Enemies. His Majeſty has order'd Inquiry to be made into the Matter, deſigning to recompence according to their Deſerts Men who have given ſo great a Proof of their Fidelity. Letters from Tarazona adviſe, that at the very Time that Town was making publick Rejoycings for the News of the Queen's being with Child, 200 of the Enemy's Horſe came from Griſſel hoping to ſurprize the Inhabitants. They appear'd when ſome Bulls were turn'd looſe to be hunted as the Manner is in Spain: But Part of the Townſmen ſupported by ſome Horſe, march'd againſt them, and put them to Flight, killing 7 and wounding above 40: The Sports went on during the Action. The Marſhal Duke of Berwick, who went to view the Frontiers, review the Troops in their Quarters, and ſee what Condition the Magazines are in, arriv'd at Cuenza the 17th of laſt Month; the next Day he went to San Clemente, and thence to the Head Quarters at Albacete. The Enemy have landed at Alicant the Troops they brought from Portugal: Some Advices make the Number of thoſe Troops to be 6000 Men, others to be no more than 4000. The Troops that were quarter'd in divers Villages or open Places of the Diſtrict of Orihuela, have been withdrawn to prevent all Surprize: And 2 Battallions are put into the Caſtle of Orihuela, which has been lately fortified with new Works. In Order to furniſh the neceſſary Expeaces for the Preparations of the Campaign, it has been reſolv'd to demand a Loan of 2 Millions of Crowns of the Churches of Spain, on aſſigning them Repayment within 4 Months at furtheſt out of the firſt Money ariſing by the Royal Revenues. The Chapter of Toledo, by the Example of Cardinal Portocarrero, and ſome others, have already offer'd to contribute to this Subſidy; and the Merchants have with great Zeal promis'd to make conſiderable Advances on the ſame Terms.

From the Amſterdam Gazette, dated March 22.

Turin, March 5. The Siege of the Caſtle of Milan is carried on in the common Forms. The Beſieged have made ſeveral Sallies with little Succeſs. A Work is caſt up to hinder them from making more Sallies. Their Artillery being more numerous than thoſe of the Beſiegers, the Cannon of the latter have not for that Reaſon done ſo much Execution as they promis'd themſelves: However, they have diſmounted ſeveral Cannon of the Caſtle, and very much damag'd its Works. His Royal Highneſs is ſending thither 30 Cannon and ſeveral Mortars, with a great Number of Gunners; and 20 Cannon more are expected there from Modena: After the Arrival of which, the Caſtle will be batter'd with great Vigour. In the mean Time, the Beſiegers are employ'd in diſcovering the Enemy's Mines: And 'tis hop'd the Place will not hold out long, becauſe the Beſieged want Proviſions.

From the Harlam Courant, dated March 22.

Milan, March 8. The Fire made on both Sides, in the Siege of the Caſtle, is not to be deſcribed. The Germans have ruin'd one of the Bulworks by a Battery of 24 Guns: On the other ſide the Garriſon fire hard upon the Beſiegers Batteries, and in their frequent Sallies nail ſome of their Cannon and kill them many Men. The Germans have carry'd on their Trenches to the Covert-Way; but are deterr'd from Storming it by Fear of Mines, which they are ſearching for, and have already diſcover'd one of 6 Barrels of Power: They find it neceſſary likewiſe to make an Attack againſt another Part of the Caſtle, and receive Cannon Daily for new Batteries. They will not eaſily be Maſters of the Place by Aſſault, the Garriſon are ſo well provided with Ammunition: But Deſerters agree that Proviſions are very ſcarce with them, eſpecially Wine, of which for four Days paſt one Glaſs has been given to each Soldier on Duty to encourage them, their Officers declaring they are reſolv'd to defend the Place to the laſt Drop of Blood. Few Shot from the Caſtle are made upon the City, but ſeveral from the Batteries of the Germans fly into it over the Caſtle: Half the Inhabitants have left the City.

From the Amſterdam Courant, dated March 22.

Leipſich, Mar. 16. The 14th Inſtant M. Beſenwalde Envoy from the King of France, had a private Audience of the King of Sweden; in which he congratulated him on his former Victories and the Concluſion of the Peace with King Auguſtus, and deſir'd his Mediation of a general Peace. To the firſt Compliment his Swediſh Majeſty return'd him a decent Anſwer; but as to the other Propoſition, declar'd he could take no Reſolution upon it becauſe the Allies had not made any Overture to him on that Subject; yet he would contribute all that lay in his Power to the forwarding ſo important an Affair.

From the Antwerp Courant, dated Mar. 22.

Paris, Mar. 18. Letters from Madrid of the 4th Inſtant, import, that the Duke of Berwick having drawn the Troops together near Albacette, march'd the 23d of February towards Valencia; that thereupon the Enemy abandon'd Alcoy, Elche, and ſome other Places, and left but 150 Men in Requena; that they were drawing together all their Troops not far from Altea between Alicant and Denia; and that 'twas probable there would be a Battle in Caſe the Duke of Berwick ſhould make any Attempt upon Valencia. 'Tis uncertain yet whether King Philip will make the Campaign in Perſon: 'Tis now a common Talk, and confirm'd by all the Advices from Court, that the Duke of Orleans will go to Catalonia or Arragon with a Detachment of 24 Battallions and 15 Squadrons, the King being reſolv'd to make a great Effort in Spain; and that the Marſhal de Theſſe with the reſt of the Troops in Dauphine will act defenſively againſt the Duke of Savoy. The Marſhal de Villars having receiv'd all his Orders and Inſtructions from the King, is on his Departure for Alſace. They write from Bayone, that a Caper of Sr. Sebaſtians had taken after a ſharp Engagement a Dutch Flyboat, that was ſeparated in bad Weather from the Squadron commanded by Vice Admiral Goes, and had on board 200 Soldiers for Spain. The Troops that are to form the Army under the Duke of Vendome in Flanders, will 'tis ſaid conſiſt of 70000 Men; beſides ſides the Spaniards, Bavarians, and Walloons, which are to act apart under the Elector of Bavaria. The Review of the Life-Guards and other Troops of the King's Houſehold, is to be the 30th and 31ſt Inſtant near Marly. 'Tis rumour'd that 40 new Regiments will be reform'd, and incorporated into old weak Regiments, which are to ſerve in Flanders; and that new Regiments will be made up out of the reform'd Companies of Grenadiers. Yeſterday the Dauphin accompanied by ſeveral Princes and Princeſſes, went to Anet, where they are to be entertain'd for ſeveral Days by the Duke of Vendome. 'Tis certain that the Squadron of Men of War commanded by M. du Queſne, is ſail'd for the Weſt-Indies, to fetch the Galleons.

Hague, March 22. 'Some Letters from Paris of 'the 18th Inſtant ſay it was rumour'd there that 'Advice was come of the Surrender of the Caſtle 'of Milan, and that a Treaty is concluded between 'Prince Eugene and Count Medavi: The Duke of 'Orleans is to ſet out for Catalonia the 1ſt of April; 'and the Duke of Vendome for Flanders the 6th. 'The King of France has written a Letter to the 'Pope, in which he expreſſes a ſincere Diſpoſition 'to make Peace with the Allies; and for a Proof of 'ſuch his Readyneſs, declares, that his Grandſon 'being poſſeſs'd of the Hearts of the true Spaniards, 'is content to reign only over them; and will agree 'that the Milaneze, Naples, Sicily and the other 'Iſlands in the Mediterranean depending on Spain, 'ſhall be yielded for ever to the Houſe of Auſtria: 'He likewiſe declares, that the Dutch ſhall have 'a ſafe Barriere.

Theſe are to Certify, that I William Fernely, Lieutenant of her Majeſty's Ship the Ranelaugh, had about a fortnight ſince, a violent Fit of the GOUT in one of my Feet, and by uſing a Plaiſter to it, threw it into my Stomach, where it continued in a very violent manner for 36 Hours, inſomuch, as I deſpair'd of Life, but being then told of a Genleman, who was to be heard of at Mr. Harriſon's Bookſeller, under Lincolns-Inn-Gate in Chancery-Lane, who had found out a new Method for the Cure of that Diſtemper, I ſent for him, and the next Morning after I had taken but one Doſe of his Medicine, my Pain was perfectly gone out of my Stomach, and I was able to ſet my Foot to the Ground, and in 2 Days more could walk about my Chamber, and in a Week from the time I firſt took it, I was perfectly well. This I deſire might be publiſh'd for the Benefit of Mankind, and to obviate an Objection that many Perſons make, who are afraid to uſe any means in this Diſtemper, leaſt it ſhould throw it into their Stomach. Witneſs my Hand, this 13th Day of March, 1706-7.
